Cornell Commitment Supervisor Evaluation

Supervisor: At the end of the experience, please review this evaluation with the student, and include a discussion of the student's accomplishments and contributions to your organization. This evaluation is a critical part of the student's experience and helps the student gain a clear understanding of strengths and areas for development. When you have completed the evaluation, please sign and give the evaluation to the student for submission to our office. You are also welcome to submit the evaluation directly to our office using the contact information above. Thank you for providing this feedback.
